

Sleigh Bell Event

As a prelude to the 19th annual Sleigh Bell Luncheon sponsored by the Southern California Alumnae Chapters of Delta Delta Delta, a coffee hour will be held on Friday, Oct. 1, at 10 a.m., in the Palm Court of the Ambassador Hotel.

Honored guests will be patronesses of the 1965 luncheon and fashion show, to be held on Dec. 7 in the Coconut Grove. Mrs. Albert E. Miller, president of the Hospital Committee, will preside at the meeting, and Mrs. Alton Layne, chairman of the coffee hour, will greet guests along with her committee, including Mmes. Walter Uptegraf, Hollywood Riviera; Dirk Kraayeveld, Manhattan Beach; Dale B. Drummond, El Segundo; and Walter R. Clark, Palos Verdes Estates.

Dr. Denman Hammond, head of the division of Hematology Research at the Children's Hospital, will speak on "Current Research in Blood Diseases." All proceeds from this annual Tri Delta benefit are donated to the Research Department of Children's Hospital, and since its inception over $120,000 has been raised to continue support of research in children's blood disorders.

The creation of 144 table centerpieces and decorations for the December Sleigh Bell Luncheon is the responsibility of the South Bay Alumnae Chapter of Tri Delta. This project was continued at the meeting, held at the home of Mrs. David Carico, Manhattan Beach, Tuesday.

Mrs. R. H. Prideaux, Rolling Hills, chapter president, conducted a short business meeting. All interested Alumnae in the South Bay area are invited to call Mrs. Prideaux for further information.

Pair Living In Texas

Wearing a long, white crepe sheath with a lace jacket, Miss Barbara Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Howard, 1649 W. 205th St., walked down the aisle of the Assembly of God Church, on the arm of her father, to exchange marriage promises with Michael Van De Vort.

The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. J. W. Tippin, 2604 W. 175th St. and L. W. Van De Vort of Azusa.

Miss Carolyn Howard, in aqua crepe, was the only attendant.

Johnny Van De Vort stood as best man and ushers were Dexter McWhorter and Alan Van De Vort. Rev. William T. Holcomb, pastor, officiated at the marriage as Mrs. Marilyn Holcomb played the nuptial music.

A church reception followed the marriage and the newlyweds greeted a number of friends at a reception at the home of the bridegroom's mother on July 24.

The honeymoon was spent in Monterey and the couple has gone to San Antonio, Texas, to reside while Mr. Van De Vort serves with the United States Army.

The bride, a Gardena High graduate, has been employed by the Pacific Telephone Co.

Her husband is a graduate of North High and Woodbury College.

C.S. Boyds at Home Here

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stuart Boyd have returned from their honeymoon in Colorado and are established at 20346 Anza Ave., Torrance. The couple was married recently at the Wayfarers Chapel in Portuguese Bend. Mrs. Boyd is the former Julie Marie Snow, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Snow, 2414 Sonoma, Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur H. Boyd of Redondo are parents of the bridegroom.

Rev. David Garrett conducted the marriage for which the bride wore a traditional gown of silk taffeta with Chantilly lace appliques. The gown was fashioned with a train. A small pearl tiara held her short full illusion veil and she carried white cymbidium orchids and stephanotis.

Attendants, wearing poude blue, were Misses Minnie Snow and Marcia Thompson.

Phillip Boyd was his brother's best man. Rocky Snow and Al Swanson were ushers.

The 150 guests were entertained at a reception at the Torrance YWCA.

MRS. CHARLES BOYD (Robison photo)

The bride is a graduate of Torrance High while her husband was graduated from North High, El Camino and the Los Angeles Trade School.

Montgomery Mothers to Open Year

Mothers Club of Bishop Montgomery High School, under the guidance of Mrs. Anthony R. Carbone, will hold its first meeting of the 1965-1966 year in the school library on Tuesday, Oct. 5 at 8 p.m.

An informal hour, introduced last year, to enable the mothers to become better acquainted with the faculty and its aims will continue. Faculty members will be present in the library at 7 p.m. to answer questions.

Those who will assist Mrs. Carbone with her duties are Mmes. Frederick J. Brierley, first vice president; Charles K. Bongard, second vice president; W. F. Croak, recording secretary; Richard Crosbie, corresponding secretary; and John G. Thompson, treasurer.

Committee chairmen include Mmes. J. Abegg, athletic and regular snack bar; Ted Kerwin, attendance; C. L. Fox, chaperones; Ronald W. Creasey, door prizes; Robert P. Wermuth, membership; Ross Pinto, program; Lucas L. Akana, publicity; Hal L. Smith, social; Donald Moreau, sunshine; Floyd Loew, telephone; and Allan Harkins, hospitality.

Twin Daughters Born to Speers

Mr. and Mrs. Peter G. Speer, 22214 Leyte Dr., Torrance announce the birth of twin daughters at the Kaiser Hospital in Harbor City on Sept. 8. The little girls have been named Diane Marie and Donna Lynne. They are being welcomed by a brother, Gregory 3 1/2, as well as grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George White, Manhattan Beach, and Mr. and Mrs. Grant Speer, Los Angeles.

Mammoth Sale Scheduled for The Weekend

Episcopal Women of St. Andrew's will present their annual rummage sale Friday and Saturday, Oct. 1 and 2 at the guild hall, 1432 Engracia Ave.

Offered at bargain prices will be used clothing for children and adults, household items, furniture, bedding and miscellaneous items.

Doors will open at 8:30 a.m. on Friday and remain open until 5 p.m. Sale hours on Saturday are from 8:30 a.m. until noon.

The public is invited to take advantage of the many bargains.

Gardners Host Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. William Gardner, formerly of Torrance, entertained at a dinner party last Saturday evening at their Palos Verdes home.

After dinner, bridge was played.

Enjoying the Gardners' hospitality were Messrs. and Mmes. W. E. Starr, Robert Davis, Wade White, of Torrance; Verne Sanders of Westchester; and William Bennett of Brentwood, also former residents.

Honors Parents

Edwin Ellis, Jr., of Hermosa Beach hosted a dinner party at the Smith Bros. Indian Village Restaurant in honor of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Ellis, Sr., of Torrance, who were noting Mrs. Ellis' birthday anniversary. Well-wishers included Harry Ashton.

Cheeks Note Silver Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. D. G. "Jiggs" Cheek, 24676 Woodward Ave., Lomita, were guests of honor at an Open House on Sunday, Sept. 12 celebrating their Silver Wedding Anniversary.

The reception was held at the home of their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Cook, 26434 Leedale Ave., Harbor City. Also, as host, was the Cheeks' son, Michael, a senior at Arizona State University. The celebrants have two grandchildren, Richard and Ronald Cook.

The honored couple grew up in the Torrance-Lomita area. Mrs. Cheek is a native of California and both are graduates of Narbonne High School. Their marriage took place Sept. 12, 1940 in the garden at the home of Mrs. Cheek's parents in Torrance.

Special guests at the reception were the couple's mothers, Mrs. Michael Scanlon and Mrs. Earl Cheek. Many relatives and friends attended, who were present at the wedding 25 years ago.

With the exception of a few years residence in Phoenix, Ariz. and Houston, Tex., Mr. and Mrs. Cheek have resided in this area and participated in community affairs.

Mrs. Cheek has been active in PTA and is a past president of Narbonne PTA. She is also past president of the former Harbor City American Legion auxiliary.

Mr. Cheek is a member of the Torrance Elks Lodge and past commander of the Harbor City American Legion. He is employed by Baldwin-Ehret-Hall Co. Both have been active in Little and Pony League baseball activities.

Diane Talley Becomes Bride of Robert Morgan

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Talley, 2236 W. 236th Place, Torrance, announce the marriage of their daughter, Diane, to Robert A. Morgan in a four o'clock ceremony at their home on Sept. 4.

Parents of the bridegroom are Lt. and Mrs. Joe H. Morgan, 9 Horseshoe Lane, Wilmington, La. Morgan is a Baptist chaplain with the United States Navy Reserve.

Mr. Talley escorted his daughter to the improvised altar where Rev. Levi W. Price of the Narbonne Baptist Church officiated at the vow exchange. The bride wore a gown of white chiffon over taffeta and a short net veil held by a bow. Her bouquet was of yellow roses and chrysanthemums.

Miss Karen Dobis, in a yellow silk sheath, was the maid of honor and Harry Morgan served as his brother's best man.

The 75 guests were entertained at a buffet dinner after which the couple left for Shawnee, Okla. where the bridegroom will attend his fourth year at the Oklahoma Baptist University.

The bride is a graduate of South High School and El Camino College. She is a member of Job's Daughters, Lomita Bethel, and Omega Phi sorority.

Her husband was graduated from Kalani High school in Honolulu prior to entering the Baptist University at Shawnee.
